STATEMENT

I am an enthusiastic and hard working individual, with a huge passion for fashion photography and film. I have attended Falmouth University to expand my knowledge of the professional standards and techniques when it comes to fashion image making. My personal work spans from my passion for Hip-hop dance, Which I teach on a weekly basis. My true passion for this creative industry is the journey of creation, leading to the final outcome. In my free time I host a podcast that explores different creatives process'.
